

we have a cat her name is Fluffy and she follows the wife and i all around the yard when were out working just like a dog she even goes walking on the sidewalk with me like a little dog the neighbors say they never saw a cat do that before and we just love her, well i suppose its getting cold there by now down here they are still going out with short sleeves and shorts believe me this is the life well write when you can we sure like to hear from you, Eva has a hard time writing with her eyes that why she doesnt write she can see everything but has a hard time writing, Say hallow to Phillip for us
Love Eva & Albert

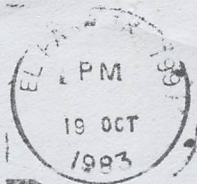

Dear Sis

was glad to get a letter from you and know you are all right. its raining out today and i cant do anything out doors so i am writing this letter and sending you a picture of our house as you will see the flowers are still all in bloom the bedroom that you cant see is in back of the cedar tree on the right and the den is on the left of the cedar tree that you cant see but it will give you some idea of what our house has is like and we just love it hear no snow to shovel in the winter Carl and Norma is moving hear to live the first of January and that will be nice
