

Deaths.

In this town, OLIVE ANN, daughter of Mr. Henry C. Gerrish, aged 3 years.

In Eliot, Mrs. MARY, wife of Daniel Bartlett, Jr. aged 43.

In Newington, Mrs. ELIZABETH H. DOWNING, aged 77.

In South-Berwick, LUCY ELIZABETH, only child of Charles N. Cogswell, Esq. aged 3 months.

In Dover, Mr. NATHANIEL MEADER, formerly of Farmington, aged 46.

In Dover, Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS.

In Rochester, Mr. MOSES BICKFORD.

In Pittsfield, SARAH VICKERY, aged 22.

In Hampton, Mr. MOSES SHAW, aged 62.

In Methuen, Capt. WILLIAM RICHARDSON, of Concord, N. H. 42.

In Barnstead Miss LYDIA COLBATH.

Drowned in Hartford, Conn. while at the Deaf and Dumb' Asylum, JEREMIAH DAVIS, formerly of Barnstead, aged 20.

In Barnstead, Mr. LYMAN HODGDON, 24.

In Brookfield, Mr. ISAAC STANTON, aged 44.

In Alton, Mr. ELEAZER DAVIS, aged 90. He has left nine children, 67 grand children and 75 great grand children.

In Waterboro', Mr. GEORGE JELLISON, one of the first settlers in the town, aged 86. He was born in South-Berwick, and settled in Waterboro' in 1790.

In Exeter, a child of Capt. Joseph Fernald.

Lost overboard from schr. Magnet, on the 12th June, HENRY S. SPREAD, of Exeter.

In Wakefield, Mr. WILLIAM A. MESERVE, aged 24, formerly of Boston.

In Andover, Dea. ISAAC ABBOTT, 91, he was at the Battle of Bunker Hill.

In East Bridgewater, CHRISTOPHER SEAVER, a revolutionary pensioner, 90.

In Sandish, Mrs. THANKFUL COLBROTH. She survived the birth of three children but about 6 hours, the children are doing well.